Frequently Asked Questions:

1. What does it mean to speak in an “authentic, compelling” way? How can I put my “best foot forward” and attract those I am meant to serve?

2. What do I need to learn in the “Find Your Voice” ® Coaching “Studio”?

What are the main things?

3. Oh, my,...I don't know how to breathe very well. Why is that important?

4. Why do you teach us to “pucker up” and blow out through “pursed lips” during the breathing exercise?

5. What do you mean---“build new muscle”?

6. Concentrate on my feet? Why?

7. What's Vocal "IMPACT"?

Why does it matter?

8. How do I get people to understand what I'm saying?
I want them to "look into" what I have to offer them.

9.

Like a young man said,...
"You Rock! I wanna' Rock! How?"

10. I want people to LOVE hearing my Voice and what I have to say!

I want to LOVE my voice, too. Is that important?

11. I get nervous or frightened before speaking in person, recording my Audio CD and voice clip for my website. I get anxious before speaking on T.V. Is there a way I can reduce and work through my fear?

12.

What do you mean, “Connect with your listener”?

13.

Are you suggesting that as I improve the sound of my Voice and become an authentic, compelling speaker, I might get so busy with inquiries about my services, program, or products, I won't know which line to answer first?

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions:

1. When you are connected with who you truly are, speaking from your heart, soul, passion, purpose, etc., you will be an “authentic” speaker. Add great vocal skill and deep awareness to authenticity, and you will be “compelling”!

2. In terms of vocal skill focus, we primarily deal with Breathing, bodily support, strength, sound production of all kinds, (phonation and resonance), diction and articulation; range and inflection; speed and cadence, energy and de-constriction. Anything unique to individual needs too.

In terms of awareness, we focus on (a) speaking from all parts of the Self ; (b) speaking from purpose and passion; (c) changing what gets in your way; (d) underlying reasons for speaking difficulties; (e) fear into confidence.

3. Excellent breathing is the foundation for magnificent, authentic, compelling speaking. It is the “cure-all” for resolving most vocal issues.

4. It represents the slow release of air used to produce sound. This helps you concentrate on the outgo of air without producing sound yet. Keep air in your body and use it!

5. You will need to “deconstruct” old muscular constrictions, and “construct/build” new muscles to support deep, relaxed breathing, an open throat, and bodily support for great speaking.

6. You need to “ground” your feet, stay in touch with the earth, and stay in touch with YOU! This helps you manage fear.

7. The vocal “Impact” you have on your listener(s) will totally determine whether or not they want to stick around and listen to what you have to offer. Impact is huge! It needs to be a compelling, inspiring, pleasant “impact,” ---not a repelling one.

8. People need to be able to clearly and easily understand what you are saying. You need to enunciate, articulate well, and use good diction. Then people will be motivated to “look into” what you have to offer, because they are not distracted by mumbling or un-clarity of speech.

9. You will “Rock” when you feel confident, have great vocal skills, and fabulous awareness about you and your voice. Being an authentic and compelling speaker “rocks” your listeners!

10. Loving your voice is very important! The more comfortable and confident you are in your own speaking abilities, the more effective a speaker (in any venue) you will be!

11. Being frightened is remembered and anticipated shame. We work through this and equip you with “what to do instead” of shaking, being absorbed with “what if’s” or being afraid of your fear. You will become confident and knowledgeable in this “no shame” learning voice “studio”.

12. Connecting well with those you are meant to serve is absolutely essential. Coming to know, like and trust you, is a result of making a solid connection...one that becomes the basis for an ongoing relationship. They’ll know who you are down deep through the sound of your voice. Others can also hear how connected (or not) you are with your Self. Connection is vital!

13. It is likely that you will be swamped with calls, for people like, know and trust what they “hear” from you and about you as you become an authentic, compelling speaker!

14. Becoming a skillful, masterful, knowledgeable, aware and confident speaker = love of voice! You enjoy your voice, and so will they!

15. Connect all over the world! Sound magnificent, authentic and compelling as you reach out effectively all across the globe with your newly empowered Speaking Voice!

16. In terms of your unique voice, we’d address what YOU notice about your voice first---strengths and any area of concern---and then I’d follow up with my assessment.

Learn bunches more about speaking authentically and compellingly!
